FINAL ORDER ON SUMMARY ACTION

The Alcoholic Beverage and Cannabis Board (Board), on this 26th day of January 2026, hereby deems the Summary Action initiated in accordance with Chapter 16B of Title 7 of the D.C. Official Code final where a hearing was not requested under D.C. Official Code § 7-1671.08(g)(4). The parties are advised that the failure to request a timely hearing WAIVES the right to challenge the facts leading to the closure, the padlocking of the premises, and seizure of evidence in this forum. The Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) and the Alcoholic Beverage and Cannabis Administration (ABCA) shall retain the right to padlock the premises and seize any cannabis or cannabis products found on the premises pursuant to D.C. Official Code § 7-1671.08(g)(1). The Board may consider modifying this Order or the terms of the summary closure upon the submission and approval of a reasonable remediation plan by the property owner or tenant that prevents the recurrence of illegal cannabis activity at the premises. The ABCA shall deliver a copy of this order to the Parties.

Any party adversely affected may file a Motion for Reconsideration of this decision or other motion permitted by law within ten days of service of this Order. If a motion is filed, the opposing party may file a response within seven days. If a response is filed, the movant may file a reply within three days. All filings should be served on all parties to the matter and delivered to the Alcoholic Beverage and Cannabis Administration, 899 North Capitol Street, N.E., Suite 4200-A, Washington, D.C. 20002, or sent by email to abca.legal@dc.gov. Parties are further advised that the failure to properly serve the other parties or to present all matters of record that have allegedly been erroneously decided in a motion for reconsideration may result in the waiver of those matters being considered by the Board. The Board also reserves the right to summarily deny or not consider multiple and repetitive motions.

In addition to filing a Motion for Reconsideration, pursuant to § 11 of the District of Columbia Administrative Procedure Act, Pub. L. 90-614, 82 Stat. 1209, D.C. Official Code § 2-510 (2001), and Rule 15 of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, a party that is adversely affected may have the right to appeal this Order by filing a petition for review, within 30 days of the date of service of this Order, with the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, located at 430 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001. Parties are advised that the timely filing of a Motion for Reconsideration stays the time for filing a petition for review in the District of Columbia Court of Appeals until the Board rules on the motion. See D.C. App. Rule 15(b) (2004). Parties are also advised that the Superior Court of the District of Columbia may have jurisdiction to hear appeals in non-contested cases or in matters where that court is specifically provided jurisdiction by law. Finally, advisory neighborhood commissions (ANCs) are advised that their right to appeal or challenge a decision of the Board may be limited by the laws governing ANCs. See e.g., D.C. Code § 1-309.10(g).
