ORDER VACATING CANCELLATION OF LICENSE AND REINSTATING LICENSE

On January 7, 2026, the Alcoholic Beverage and Cannabis Board (Board) cancelled the Retailer's Class CT License No. ABRA-119913, held by Marcon, Inc., t/a Vip Lounge (Petitioner), because the Alcoholic Beverage and Cannabis Administration's (ABCA) Enforcement Division determined that the Petitioner was out of business. See Board Order No. 2026-004.

On January 12, 2026, the Petitioner sought reinstatement of the Retailer's Class CT License No. ABRA-119913. In support of its request for reinstatement, the Petitioner indicated that the establishment never permanently closed the business and all issues preventing the Petitioner from renewing its license have been resolved.

The Board finds that the reinstatement of the license is proper conditioned upon the requirement that the Petitioner submits the Renewal Application and required license fees.

Accordingly, it is this 28th day of January 2026, ORDERED that the ORDER CANCELLING LICENSE issued against the Petitioner, by the Board on January 7, 2026, be and hereby is VACATED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that its Retailer's Class CT License No. ABRA-119913 be REINSTATED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Petitioner submit the renewal application and pay the required fees within two (2) weeks from the date of this Order.

A copy of this Order shall be sent to the Petitioner.

Any party adversely affected may file a Motion for Reconsideration of this decision or other motion permitted by law within ten days of service of this Order. If a motion is filed, the opposing party may file a response within seven days. If a response is filed, the movant may file a reply within three days. All filings should be served on all parties to the matter and delivered to the Alcoholic Beverage and Cannabis Administration, 899 North Capitol Street, N.E., Suite 4200-A, Washington, D.C. 20002, or sent by email to abca.legal@dc.gov. Parties are further advised that the failure to properly serve the other parties or to present all matters of record that have allegedly been erroneously decided in a motion for reconsideration may result in the waiver of those matters being considered by the Board. The Board also reserves the right to summarily deny or not consider multiple and repetitive motions.

In addition to filing a Motion for Reconsideration, pursuant to § 11 of the District of Columbia Administrative Procedure Act, Pub. L. 90-614, 82 Stat. 1209, D.C. Official Code § 2-510 (2001), and Rule 15 of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, a party that is adversely affected may have the right to appeal this Order by filing a petition for review, within 30 days of the date of service of this Order, with the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, located at 430 E Street,

N.W., Washington, D.C. 20001. Parties are advised that the timely filing of a Motion for Reconsideration stays the time for filing a petition for review in the District of Columbia Court of Appeals until the Board rules on the motion. See D.C. App. Rule 15(b) (2004).

Parties are also advised that the Superior Court of the District of Columbia may have jurisdiction to hear appeals in non-contested cases or in matters where that court is specifically provided jurisdiction by law. Finally, advisory neighborhood commissions (ANCs) are advised that their right to appeal or challenge a decision of the Board may be limited by the laws governing ANCs. See e.g., D.C. Code § 1-309.10(g).
